Commission Accepts County Road Specs

Members of the Randall County Commission, meeting Monday in the Courthouse Annex, accepted specifications for county roads drawn up by Calvin Shoup, Amarillo consulting engineer.

Shoup had been employed by the Commission at an earlier date to draw specifications for all road constructed or paved in the county by real estate developers.

The specifications, which are similar to those established by the Texas Highway Department for the construction of Farm to Market Roads, cover hot mix asphalt, concrete paving, two course surface treatment, prime coat, flexible base, sub grade and drainage.

Developers who present plans to the county for approval will be furnished with copies of specifications have been met.

Cost of having specifications drawn up is approximately $200.

It was announced that the 1966 tax value for Randall County is $39,776,650. In 1965 the value was $37,677,900. Taxes to be collected will include $67,085 in special county taxes, $457,432 ad valorem and $27,707 increase.

In other business commissioners authorized ordering a legal filing cabinet for the office of the county clerk and accepted a low bid from Plains Steel Buildings Inc. of Amarillo for a maintenance building for Precinct 1. Cost of the building to be approximately $17,685 with a 90 calendar day completion date set.

It was announced that the commission will not convene Oct. 3.

"I'll Fight," Says Barber

Ted "Suzy" Wynn says he will fight an effort by the State Board of Barber examiners to suspend his barber license 10 days.

The board has accused Wynn of failure to use proper sterilization procedures.

Wynn declares that he is being harassed by the board for his refusal to go to $1.50 on haircuts. Wynn presently is charging $1.00.

The board specifically stated in a letter to Wynn that he failed to cleanse his hands before serving a customer, used a towel that had not been laundered and with failure to sterilize equipment.

Wynn says a representative of the board told him to go up on his prices. The barber declares that when he refused to raise his price on a haircut he became the victim of harassment.

Wynn said he will take the matter to district court in an effort to have the suspension set aside.

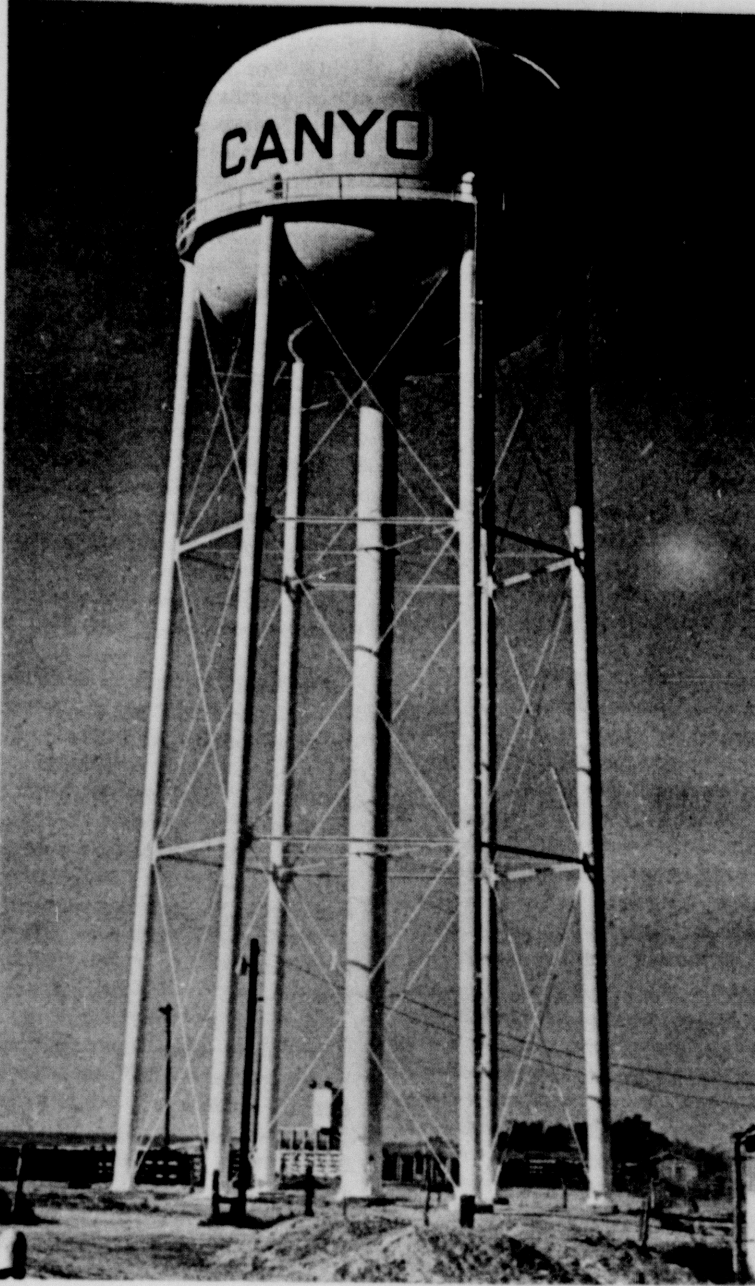

A Pampa barber had his license suspended along with Wynn. He, too, declares that the suspension was vindictive in nature following his refusal to go up on haircuts.

Cops Make Big Haul

A Lubbock man who carries a valuable coin collection in the trunk of his car was arrested here by Highway Patrolmen last week.

Homer Archie Hall told officers his coins are worth about $70,000. His car is equipped with a burglar alarm.

Hall, 53 years old, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated Friday. He was arraigned before Judge Lloyd King who set bond at $500.

NEW WATER TOWER that will service many homes in Canyon has been completed, two coats of white paint given the $81,000-plus structure and lettering added on two sides for visitors coming from the north and south to see. The one-half million gallon tower was constructed by Chicago Bridge & Iron Company.

Concert Group Schedules Tea

Community Concert Association will open the fall season of activities with a workers tea Sunday afternoon, 3 p.m., in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Findley, 300 10th St. Mrs. Findley is campaign chairman.

Membership renewal week is scheduled for Oct. 2-10 with a dinner for workers slated Oct. 10 at 7 p.m. in the Canyon High School Cafeteria. Mrs. John Wilson is chairman of the dinner.

Peggy Blackburn, visiting Columbia Artist representative will be present for the dinner. According to Mrs. Findley, a minimum of three concerts is slated for the season with adult memberships priced at $7.50 and student (Canyon or University) memberships costing $4.

Membership campaign week is Oct. 10-15th. with headquarters to be at the Southwestern Public Service Co. office.

Dr. John Green is president of the Association.

Glaucoma Tests Set For Oct. 6

Free glaucoma eye disease tests for anyone who is over 40 years of age will be given next Thursday, Oct. 6, in Amarillo.

The tests, jointly sponsored by the Canyon and Amarillo Lions Clubs, will be conducted at 7 p.m. in the Amarillo Health Center, 411 Austin.

The Canyon group voted last month to participate with local funds and volunteer help for the tests.

Don Davidson, formerly of Canyon and now chairman of the glaucoma screening committee in Amarillo, said the free tests would be available for anyone in the surrounding area.

Glaucoma, he said, cannot be cured but can be arrested and doctors recommend a check-up

Volunteers Aid Child

A sufficient number of volunteers to give pattern therapy to a five-year-old Happy youngster have been enlisted.

A total of 123 volunteers have been signed to give the physical therapy to Brent Lee Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.A. Hodges, Jr., west of Happy. Mrs. Burl Sims, program coordinator, said although only 110 volunteers would be needed for the three-member teams, the others will be alternates.

She said most of the help came from Happy, but residents in Tulia, one from Amarillo and a student at West Texas State University had offered their services.

The five-year-old child suffered brain damage as an infant and three teams will be used to serve three times per day.

The teams will conduct six patterns each day and each group will spend about 40 minutes with the youngster.

Each volunteer will help every two weeks and the therapy will continue indefinitely.

Mrs. Sims said she had talked with the boy's mother and learned he could put on his shoes and socks for the first time in his life and that his speech was improving.

When students and ex-students of West Texas State University celebrate Homecoming Oct. 15, they will pay tribute to President Emeritus J.A. Hill, who this year observes his 90th birthday.

Three days of special events will be centered around visiting among former students and "the grand old man" who has seen WTSU grow from a one-building "normal" to a multi-million dollar university plant, in its 56-year history.

"Western Days" on Oct. 13 and 14 will set the mood of readiness for the campus, as

Greeks Will Build Floats

The nine national social sororities and fraternities at West Texas State University will continue to build individual floats for the annual Homecoming parade, despite some controversy on the conflict of Homecoming with the Greeks rush week.

"When I heard that the sororities were planning to build only one float among them, and that the Interfraternity Council would probably follow suit...I couldn't really blame them," said Dr. Jack Walker, head of the homecoming committee.

Panhellenic Council had voted to build only one float instead of four separate parade entries, because rush and Homecoming are only one week apart. This allows only seven days to complete a float, instudents and faculty go western in clothing, build floats and bonfires, stage pep rallies and dances, and climax a rowdy spirit with a traditional Homecoming assembly.

Televised for regional showing, the assembly will be at 10 a.m. Oct. 13 in the Fieldhouse, where the 1966 Homecoming Queen will be crowned.

Dr. Hill will light the gas flames on the new entranceway to the campus, which will be dedicated by students and exes at 6:30 p.m. Oct. 13. The flames will burn during Homecoming, and then will be lighted during special occasions at WTSU.

Members of the Phoenix Club, composed of exes and supporters of the WTSU Ex-Students, Inc., will meet for their annual pre-Homecoming dinner Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. Entertainment is planned, but the meeting will be climaxed with the award-

Chamber Discusses Parade, Barbecue

Canyon Chamber of Commerce board of directors discussed West Texas State University homecoming and heard reports from various committees Monday night.

The group met in Randall County Courthouse.

Homecoming will be Oct. 15. The homecoming parade will be held at 11 o'clock. A barbecue prepared by the Canyon Jaycees will follow immediately.

Eight barns have been secured for use of float builders. Eight more are needed.

Roland Black, Chamber manager, said he is receiving good cooperation from Amarillo Chamber of Commerce in planning for Regional Higher Education Day Oct. 22. That is the day on which members of the Coordinating Board of The Texas College and University System are slated to visit the West Texas State University campus.

Board members voted to become a member of Southwest Educational Development. This group is concerned with the dissemination of educational information.

The board decided not to (See CHAMBER, Page 9)

Citizen's Meet Set

Citizen's Committee will conduct an informal meeting Sunday afternoon, Oct. 2, at 3 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

All persons interested in the morals improvement group and its actions are urged to attend.

Special report to be given at the meeting will be a report from the Youth Conference held this summer in Austin and further discussion of the re-activation of the YMCA program in Canyon.

Canyon City Club To Open New Facilities

New and expanded facilities of the Canyon City Club will be open to the public on Saturday and Sunday says Chuck Allen, president of the organization.

Canyon residents are invited to visit the club and inspect the enlarged clubhouse and new swimming pool.

On the golf course, new tee boxes have been built so that a second nine holes of golf may be played on a "different" course. Two new greens have been built and one new fairway has been built and irrigated. Added to the golf course also is a new club lake. The lake will be stocked with fish at a later date.

Additional facilities for golfers include a lounge, snack bar and men's and ladies' locker rooms complete with showers. The snack bar will be operated by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Deeds. Deeds is the promoter of the club.

The clubhouse, which has been tripled in size, includes the addition of new flooring in the older portion to be used as a ballroom. This area has been completely remodeled.

According to Allen, improvements and additions to the facility were contracted by Plains Steel Building and construction began on May 10.

The Canyon City Club has 120 regular members and 100 associate members. Officers, in addition to Allen, are Alfred Daniels, vice-president; Charlie Hillier, secretary-treasurer; Jack Swartzell, director; Charles Hoover, director; Riley Troth, director; and Marvin Fite, director.

Clifford is charged in the April 8 shooting of Billy Joe Stevens.

He drew a two year sentence in Denton after being found guilty of murder without malice in the shooting of his wife, Mrs. Clifford was slain in her Canyon apartment about a half hour before Stevens was shot at a Hereford stockyard.

Clifford was tried in Denton after a change of venue was granted by Judge Gene Jordan, presiding judge of the 47th District Court here.

Information has been received here that Clifford was transferred Monday to Huntsville. He will be removed from prison on a bench warrant issued by Judge Harry Schultz, presiding judge of the 69th Judicial District in which Hereford is located.

The area plant pathologist for the A & M Extension Service in Lubbock toured area fields the early part of the month and said he would make a full report to Jack Ziegler of Taylor-Evans Farm Store here, but no report has been forthcoming.

Following the tour with Dr. Dennis Peier, agronomist for Taylor-Evans Seed Company of Tulia and Ziegler, Dr. Berry said hail, common "stink" bugs and leaf blighting could be contributing factors of the disease.

The disease is characterized by a discoloration of the stalk, uneven grain, stalk rotting and grain sorghum in the bloom that never fills.

GIVING the improved course at Canyon City Club a tryout are Charlie Wilson of Canyon, left, J.W. Malone of Amarillo holding the flag, and Joe Gill of Canyon, right. Green No. 7 was completely rebuilt, along with Green No. 9, as part of the improvement program.

Eagles Trip Lynx In Second Victory

The Canyon Eagles were polite hosts almost to a fault Friday night as they walked a tightrope with the clawless Spearman Lynx before wedging out a 6-0 fourth quarter win in a game of sputtering offenses in the Buffalo Bowl.

The Eagles drove near the Spearman goal four times without scoring before Joe Moore climaxed a 51 yard drive with a three yard run with only 5:29 left in the game.

Moore received the Most Valuable Player honor from his fellow Eagles. He was the only back of any reliability in the entire game. His touchdown smash was a fitting end to a great night for the Eagle senior.

who roared for 135 yards rushing and caught three passes for 39 yards, giving him a total offense of 174 yards.

Just how much the Eagles depend on Moore—he also punts, kicks off, returns punts and kickoffs, and plays defense—is shown in the fact that he was handed the ball for 26 carries while managing a 5.2 yard average. Seven times he carried two plays in a row, three times he was called on three times in a row, and finally on the winning drive Moore was simply handed the ball five straight times.

Canyon's first threat ended when Eagle quarterback Sherman Smith threw to a wrong-colored jersey to the Spearman one yard line. Later Smith and Avery

FROM THE CANYON RIM

I got a letter in the mail last week taking a poke at Paul Green's "TEXAS" which played to capacity crowds in Palo Duro Amphitheatre all summer.

The letter, along with a clipping from the Kountze News, was written by Archer Fullingim, editor of that publication.

Fullingim, formerly a Pampa newsman, said he is interested in Panhandle history and was disappointed with the Palo Duro production.

Here's what Mr. Fullingim would like to have portrayed in a historical drama of the Panhandle.

He'd like to see the story of Frenchie McCormick, belle of Old Tascosa who stayed on that little cowtown to care for the grave of her true love and now lies buried beside him in that community's "boot hill."

He'd like to see something of "Saints' Roost", pioneer name for Clarendon which was settled about 1880 by a group of prohibitionists.

Archer thinks the stories of Old Mobette, Fort Elliott, and the story of the Borger boom might have been touched upon.

I think he is somewhat justified. However, "TEXAS" with its western songs and dances coupled with superb sound effects is well worth seeing. It also has a mild conflict between a young farmer and an old cattle baron that eventually is dissolved into full-fledged cooperation.

I saw "TEXAS" twice. The singing, the scenery and the sound effects made a lasting impression on me. I'm going to be in the audience at least twice next season. I don't think anyone who saw the show has grounds for complaint.

Dee Miller was by my office Monday. Dee is a fine young man, a former Potter County district attorney and member of one of the finest families in the Texas Panhandle.

Dee says he is a conservative and may be expected to vote conservative if he is elected even though such a vote might draw the wrath of the establishment.

His opponent, Bob Price, the Republican candidate from Pampa, has not made it to Canyon this campaign. I am looking forward to a visit with him some time before the election.

The 18th Congressional District is lucky to have two such fine young men running for the office of US Representative.

We're about a month deep in school now and already it seems like a miracle that we get three off to the temples of learning every morning.

Folks who do not have children in school just can't realize the emergencies that come to light almost every school morning.

Every morning I say to myself, "Well, they'll never make it today." But in spite of this, they do.

My congratulations to Police Chief L.D. Caldwell. I think we have better traffic enforcement now than we've had since I came to Canyon six years ago. My car was bashed in three times while legally parked during the first couple of years I was here.

No ticket was issued in these three cases.

This column has repeatedly declared that there is no such thing as an unavoidable accident short of an Act of God.

When there's a wreck, someone should get a citation. Chief Caldwell assures me that this is now the rule. City police are also cracking down on speeders, especially in school zones.

Some 20 citations were issued recently on the highway in front of Rex Reeves School within a period of a couple of hours.

I've heard some criticism. Some have tabbed it a speed trap. If it's a trap, I can tell you how to avoid getting caught in it. Just lighten the foot pressure on the accelerator. You'll avoid getting a ticket and might avoid hurting a child.

This column stands firmly behind the police department.

Governor John Connally has come out for rewriting the state constitution.

This is something for which I have been campaigning for the past 15 years. Our present state constitution was written in 1873 and is a reconstruction constitution.

The number of times it must be amended each year is a sure sign of its ineffectiveness.

Some of my conservative friends say they are against writing a new constitution because the liberals might slant it in their favor. I contend that they have a far better chance to tamper with the constitution through the sometimes assinine amendments offered yearly to Texas voters.

Austin Highlights

By LARRY FUHRMAN (News Correspondent)

AUSTIN--Democrats from throughout the State made a jolly scene in Austin early this week as delegates went through the rounds of routine business coupled with hearty endorsement of Waggoner Carr as candidate for the United States Senate. Highlighting the meeting were top State officials, including Governor John Connally.

The convention got underway with registration Monday. First big event for delegates came that night, when they gathered in Municipal Auditorium to hear Carr in his address to supporters.

But all was not in harmony throughout the two-day session, with Houston liberals led by Senate candidate Barbara Jordan walking out when their credentials were challenged.

Claiming rights to all eight seats for the Harris County delegation, the liberals said all proceedings in their county convention had been legal and entitled their group to the total number seats. The group, offered a compromise by taking half the seats and leaving the others to the conservative group, said no to any discussion on the question and marched to the Capitol, where they blasted John Connally and Waggoner Carr. Liberal voters were encouraged to not vote for John Tower, however, Miss Jordan said.

Meanwhile, at Municipal Auditorium, Waggoner Carr stood before delegates and made a speech highlighting progressiveness of the Democratic Party. He said that the Democratic Party always had thought positively, and never took a sideline position in making progress in the nation. His talk praising Democrats for their positive thinking was centered around a thorough criticism of John Tower and the Republican Party.

Meeting in caucus early in the convention, Democrats from Randall County, along with other delegates from District 31, named Dick Brown of Hartley and Miss Claudia Brummitt of Amarillo as committeeman and committeewoman in the district. Certification of their election was made as the convention drew to a close Tuesday.

Water supplies for West Texas appear to be almost inevitable in the upcoming Texas Water Plan, with agricultural needs in the area receiving prominent State attention. Effect of West Texas as a whole was stressed by Joe Moore, executive director of the Texas Water Board, as he announced plans for the upcoming State water program.

Questioned as to whether farmers could afford the cost of transporting the water to the High Plains area, Moore pointed out to one person that it had not really been determined whether the residents of several large municipalities in other parts of the State would be willing or able to pay their own costs. Financing of the plan will not be through taxes, he said, but rather by the actual users of the water.

Will Davis was elected to head the State party as chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

The Democrats' state platform included commentary on:

- 1) Recommendation of consideration for a State minimum wage law;
- 2) Establishment of a State utility commission to fairly and effectively regulate the service, rates and competition of public utilities providing vital and necessary service;
- 3) Authorization of additional sources of revenue for cities to meet rapidly expanding needs;
- 4) Enactment of a consumer credit code to protect the public by regulating consumer credit financing practices.

Also included was a recommendation for a constitutional convention, a document saluting Viet Nam soldiers, condemnation of high interest rates and condemnation of riots throughout the nation.

Mrs. Lloyd B. Bentsen of Houston was named national committeewoman to succeed Mrs. Eugene Locke of Dallas, who resigned when her husband was named ambassador to Pakistan.

Need for a new State constitution for Texas was stressed by Governor Connally, when he spoke at noon Tuesday. "Unless we prepare and plan now for the future we know is coming, our system of government could very easily collapse in confusion and chaos. We may very well face a period of decision in the not so distant future when we will be called upon by the pressure of events to decide whether we wish to, or are able to, preserve our federal system of government, or whether we shall be forced to abdicate in favor of a unitary system directed from Washington."

Revision of the administrative branch, over which the Governor now has minimum control, would be a major factor in making plans for a new constitution, Connally said. Annual sessions of the Legislature were recommended.

Water supplies for West Texas appear to be almost inevitable in the upcoming Texas Water Plan, with agricultural needs in the area receiving prominent State attention. Effect of West Texas as a whole was stressed by Joe Moore, executive director of the Texas Water Board, as he announced plans for the upcoming State water program.

Financing of the plan will not be through taxes, he said, but rather by the actual users of the water.

Water will go North and West for irrigation before being diverted into Rio Grande Valley area, he said. Preliminary plans go so far as to include El Paso in the distribution of water from the Eastern reaches of the State. The water would be for municipal and industrial use only, however.

No specific cost figures have been determined yet, Moore said.

The need for immediate funds to continue financing the water development program is being felt, he pointed out, showing that it was not known whether the board could begin 16 further studies until after the Legislature convenes in January and appropriates the money.

But West Texas agriculture isn't doomed to "dry up and blow away."

Booming enrollment figures at the University of Texas show again, as in every year past, the increased demand in Texas' institutions of higher learning. Over 27,000 are expected this fall, with final figures to not be complete until sometime in October.

Unlike spacious campuses in West Texas, building on the University campus in Austin is mostly being done on land long owned by the school and immediately surrounding the original 40-acre campus. Vacant patches are very quickly being covered with concrete and steel. Buildings go towards the sky out of necessity as the University campus gains in density each year.

An urban renewal project, facing opposition by many in the University community, would make a large section of

Letter to Editor

The Internal Revenue Service is preparing a strict new ruling on deductible educational expenses, to take effect Jan. 1, 1967, which will virtually eliminate all possibility of having educational expenses deductible from federal income taxes.

Our teachers in Canyon have been required to attend summer classes because of new methods in teaching subjects in our classrooms. Rex Reeves P-TA wants our Teachers to continue to do this--Let's help them gain this tax deduction.

Dear Editor:
Somebody is going to get killed!

Traffic at the corner of 4th Avenue and 25th street continues on a highly hazardous "bluff and go" basis. Students try to cross on foot where there is no pedestrian walk, motorists dash into the intersection from the University entrance drives, and cars pile up on 25th waiting for a chance to gamble on pulling out into 4th Avenue traffic. This intersection has been a killer in the past, and it will soon be again if something isn't done. After all, WT now has in excess of 6000 students, most of them driving autos. This isn't 1920. Town fathers, get us a traffic light before there is another needless death.

County Agent's Column

We do not have all the results of competition in the many departments at the Tri-State Fair. Entries from Randall County were numerous. Seven steers fed by 4-H club members were entered in the junior market steer show. Carolyn Bunn and Jim Lamb exhibited steers which graded prime. This grade was put on but 9 steers in the entire show.

There is a place in our Randall County 4-H club program for boys and girls from ages 9 through 19. 4-H Club work in Texas is sponsored by Texas A & M University through the Agricultural Extension Service. Rural and urban members can find worthwhile projects and activities which will inspire and challenge them. There is no membership fee.

Several of our community clubs are now full. Most of these clubs meet in homes one time per month at night. We have a need to start new clubs. What is needed is adult leadership. If there are as many as five boys and or girls in a neighborhood who would like to start a new club this can be done if a parent or responsible adult leader will agree to work with the youngsters. Training of the leaders is the responsibility of the extension agents.

Dairymen have an ultra-modern system of detailed and accurate records on production, feed costs, production costs, etc. Modern data processing machines do this work for dairymen who are enrolled in Dairy Herd Improvement Associations. The Randall County Association employs a full time tester and records are handled through the A & M Extension Dairy Department.

Some real progress is now being made with bindweed control and even eradication. The latest chemical and the one now gaining favor for bindweed eradication is picloram, (trade name-Tordon). The cost of the material is substantially less than the older soil sterilents. Now is an excellent time to clean up the spots of bindweed.

Wheat drills are now finishing the remaining acres of unsown fields. Several growers who planted early report that weeds are a possible hazard. Spraying wheat for weed control should be delayed until the wheat is well established. Winter weeds such as tansy mustard can be controlled with 2-4-D in February.

The Canyon Future Farmers of America Club won a fourth place award for their education exhibit at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo.

A $50 prize was awarded the organization for its entry entitled "For The Feedlot: How Much Does It Cost To?". There were approximately ten entries in the division.

First prize four year old "Palo Duro Ivanhoe Walker Girl" was shown by the Hinders son, Michael. The Holstein took honors in both the junior and open divisions of the show.

The Hinders herd also took the following awards: first and second for three year olds, first and second for two year olds, first senior yearling, first and second junior yearling, fourth and fifth heifer calf, first dairy herd, first produce of dam, first get-of-sire, premiere exhibitor, and premiere breeder.

Miss Vera Shepard Crowned HHS Queen

Vera Shepard was crowned "homecoming queen" for Happy High School last Friday afternoon before a large crowd of ex-students at the fourth annual homecoming assembly and program.

Resident's Mother Dies

Mrs. Mary Frazier, 73, died Sept. 19 in the Bristol Hospital in Dallas. She was the mother of Mrs. Eric Burnett of Canyon.

Funeral services were held Sept. 21 at the Boyd Baptist Church in Bonham with the Rev. Morris Robbins officiating.

Interment was in New Hope cemetery with Cooper funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Frazier was born Sept. 5, 1893 in Tennessee and was a member of the Boyd Baptist Church for many years.

Survivors are two sons, four daughters, 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The special ex-student program was introduced by Bill Vernon, president of the student council. Moderations of the program was by Carol Hardaway and Dwain Grantham.

Notify ASCS Of Change

Randall County ASCS Office manager, Donald Lloyd, this week urged area farmers to promptly notify the ASCS office if there is any change in the operation of their farms.

Lloyd said, "Because of ASCS definition of a farm, it is important that this office is promptly notified of any changes in operation on your farm. This includes sale of land, purchases of land, changes of operators."

He noted that it was the responsibility of each farm operator to keep the office informed of changes, because failure to do so may seriously affect eligibility to participate in the farm programs administered by the ASCS office.

In some cases, where only a small portion or small tract of land is sold, it is possible to keep all allotments.

Speech and music classes presented the program honoring the classes of 1961, 26, 36, 46, 56, and 66.

After the pep rally, Burl Sims, president of the alumni association conducted a business meeting during which Mrs. Del Greenfield Davis of American Falls, Idaho was recognized for travelling 1,200 miles to attend the homecoming. Others recognized for great distances travelled were Charlie Partin of Springfield, Mo. and Elvin McDowell of Boulder, Colo.

Mrs. Viola Buchanan, Mrs. Grace Schaeffer and Mrs. Gui Faye Vea were the mothers present having the most children to attend Happy Public Schools. Each had five children. Eight former teachers were also present for the homecoming programs.

H.A. Wallace of Amarillo, former superintendent, introduced members of the Bi-District football team of 1946 attending the homecoming.

Elected as new alumni officers were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sims, president; Mrs. Gracie Tirey and George White, vice president; and Mrs. Maurine Allison, secretary-treasurer.

Bufs-Sun Devils To Clash In Tempe

West Texas State puts its perfect record on the line in Tempe, Ariz., this weekend against Arizona State in what may be the toughest game of the year for the Bufs.

WT is off to a fantastic start after obliterating Arlington State 38-6 and bombing University of the Pacific 49-7, but the Sun Devils are always one of the most dangerous teams in the Southwest.

Arizona State Coach Frank Kush has the difficult decision of gearing the Sun Devils defense to stop Hank Washington's passing to sensational Dave Szymkowski and big Ted Wheeler or trying to hold in check bulldozing fullback Albie (Double-O) Owens and scats-backs Eugene Morris and Ronnie Mankin.

Arlington State braced themselves for a passing onslaught and Owens and Morris ran wild against them. UOP pulled up their defenses to stop the Buff running charges and consequently Washington passed like it was going out of style.

ASU has built up a tradition of blazing speed and the top racer in this year's attack is 214-pound Travis Williams, a real dragster who has burned off a 9.3 clocking in the hundred yard dash.

Not quite as fast as Williams but potentially just as dangerous is WT's sizzling speedster Eugene Morris, who can score at any time from any place on the field in almost any way. They may challenge Williams to a duel.

Arizona State is 1-1 after beating Texas Western and then losing to powerful Wyoming. WT has the unpleasant destiny of meeting the Devils after a loss, because they rarely lose two in a row. The Bufs remember that they did it last year, however, rallying to a 22-14 win over a then 0-2 ASU team in the Buffalo Bowl. You may be just as sure that the Sun Devils remember it, too.

Unfortunately for West Texas, this game will not be in the Buffalo Bowl; it will be before a Tempe crowd that is known to be just as merciless as its football team.

Returned from last year are the top three Sun Devil rushers—Williams, Jim Bramlet, and Max Anderson—plus both quarterbacks, John Goodman and Chuck Hunt, in addition to receivers who snagged 62 aeriels. These players were responsible for 2,317 of ASU's 2,467 total offense last season.

This will be the Buff's severest test to date, and will show whether the WT offense is for real.

The West Texans are on what may be a bigger record-breaking spree than 1965.

Szymkowski has already broken single game records with 13 receptions for 219 yards. In just two games he has already caught 17—half of Roy Armentrout's 10-game record of 34 last year.

Szymkowski and Ted Wheeler each have three scoring receptions. The season record is Lother Stephenson's five in 1938.

Wheeler needs only six catches to surpass AWT career of 54 set by Canyon's own Jerry Richardson, now with the Atlanta Falcons.

Washington is far ahead of his record-setting pace of last year. Doug Kriewald, Eddie Golecki, Phil Hampton, Percy Green, and Bobby Duncan deserve much of the credit for the outstanding protection they have been giving the passer.

Washington has completed 34 of 60 passes for seven touchdowns and 611 yards. His accuracy rate is 56.7%.

Foster Watkins' 13 touchdowns passes in 1938 may at last be improved upon. With only two more scoring throws Hank will equal his nine TD passes of 1965.

Flankers Mike Bailey and Chuck Henderson add much to the receiving department of the Buffaloes.

Place kicker Tommy Fambrough has a new mark in his specialty. He has converted after all 12 Buff touchdowns and is one for one in field goals.

The Bufs are averaging 565 yards of game in total offense, well ahead of the record pace of 465 per game set by the famous 1950 crew that posted a 9-1 record. The '66 team is averaging 43.5 points a game as compared with the record 37.2 points per Saturday standard also set in 1950.

The Sun Devils' Williams appears to be the latest model in a long line of great ASU backs.

Some of these former Arizona State fireballs are Henry Carr of the New York Giants, a world record holding sprinter and a current Olympic champion; Gene Foster of the San Diego Chargers and flanker Larry Todd of the Oakland Raiders.

The most recent game breaker is the Philadelphia Eagles' Ben Hawkins, who gave the Bufs fits last year when he was an all-American defensive back.

Gwyn Attends Conference

Gary Gwyn, Canyon City Manager, is expected to return today from a water Pollution Control Federation Conference.

The meeting began Monday in Kansas City, Mo.

Correct Drainage Problem

Re-paving work has been done in an attempt to correct a water drainage problem on 5th Ave. between 14th and 15th St.

When the city recently received a near three-inch rain, the water stood on the north side of the street instead of going into the gutter and on to the Hidden Valley Addition.

City Manager Gary Gwyn told City Commissioners of the situation last week and said City Consulting Engineer Bill McMorries would see what could be done.

Last week, J. Lee Milligan, sub-contractors on the street which was recently widened, made an over-lay of asphalt on the north side of the street in order to give the proper crown flow.

Cost of widening the street from 31 to 60 feet was $5,898. Bledsoe and Caldwell of Amarillo received the contract for the work.

Vandalism Hits City

Three cases of vandalism have occurred within the Canyon city limits within a one-week period.

The rear window of a 1963 automobile, owned by Barbara Falkenstien of 2104 12th Ave., was smashed by a rock sometime Sunday night or early Monday morning.

During the same period, a rock was thrown through a rear window of a vehicle owned by Charles Hester, 2411 12th Ave. The rock went through the back window and dented the dash of the car.

Chief of Police L.D. Caldwell said caliche rocks were used in both incidents. Each rock weighed about one to one and one-half pounds.

Sometime last Wednesday night a whiskey bottle was thrown at the front window of a 1951 pick up truck owned by Mrs. Otto Samuelson of 2200 7th Ave. The glass was cracked by the bottle.

Mrs. Bewley Visits Folks

Mrs. Mamie Bewley has returned from San Bruno, Calif. where she visited with her son, Bill N. Bewley, and family including four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Bewley also visited with another grandson, Louis W. Bewley.

Accompanying Mrs. Bewley were Mrs. Charles Bewley and Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Furlow of Tulsa. The four grandparents went sightseeing in the San Francisco area and some 32 people were present in the Bill Bewley home Sunday for a reunion luncheon.

Four CHS Students Named On Merit List

Four Canyon High School seniors have been selected in the 1966-67 Merit Scholarship competition according to Hobart McDonald, principal.

Two students, Alan Demus and Chris Kuykendall, were selected as semi-finalists. Students on the commended list are Todd W. Cone and Edward B. Hinders, also CHS seniors.

Both Demus and Kuykendall were among the highest scoring students in Texas and can advance to finalist status by receiving the endorsement of their schools, substantiating their qualifying test performance on a second exam, and submitting information about their achievements and interests.

All Merit Scholars for 1967 will be selected from the finalist group. Merit scholarships will be presented in May 1967 and will be four year awards covering the undergraduate years of college. Each stipend is individually determined after the winners' need is assessed ranging to the maximum of $6,000 or $1,500 per year. Winners choose their own college and course of study.

Letters of commendation have been received for Cone and Hinders. The commended students rank just below the semi-finalists and will not be eligible for advancement in the merit program. However, their names will be reported to other scholarship-granting agencies and to the colleges which they named as their first and second choices at the time they took the tests according to McDonald.

Demus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Demus, is a member of the choir and drama club at Canyon High School. He is president of the Thespians, photographer for the school yearbook "Soaring Wings", and president of the National Honor Society.

Demus has participated in the National Science Foundation mathematics program at Texas A & M and has represented Canyon High School for the past two years at the state University Interscholastic League contests in science.

Kuykendall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Conway Kuykendall of Canyon. He is a member of the National Honor Society and was a member of the CHS debate team which placed second in district last year. He will continue as a member of the debate team this fall.

Cone is the son of C.E. Cone, who is presently serving with the Armed Forces in Viet Nam. Cone is residing with an aunt, Betty Jo Cone, and family in Canyon. He was a member of the debate team which took second place in the district UIL meet last spring.

Cone is also a member of the CHS Drama Club, the National Honor Society, the Student Council and was secretary for Combat Pilot Addresses JCs.

Gene Stocker was the guest speaker for Tuesday's meeting of the Canyon Jaycees.

Stocker reported on activities in Viet Nam. He has just returned from a year's duty as a combat pilot in the area.

During the business session, Wayne Edmondson, president, was in charge. Plans were outlined for cooking the barbecue for the annual West Texas State University Homecoming and several other upcoming projects including participating at the Fall Board meeting in San Angelo during mid-October.

GARY CATES (20) of Spearman goes high to pick off a pass intended for Canyon's Joe Moore (30) at the Spearman one yard line. Looking on is Jack Swartzell (20) of the Eagles, who has beaten Lynx Hal Shufeldt (40) on the play.

Eagles . . .

Thrasher teamed up to fumble a handoff at the Spearman 25, and Joe Moore got into the act by fumbling away the ball at the Lynx eight.

Canyon's Ronny Russel gave the Eagles an easy chance to score by recovering a Lynx fumble at the Spearman 11, but the Eagles managed only three yards on four plays and lost the ball on downs.

After Moore's TD another drive went dead at the Spearman 16.

The closest Eagle back to Moore in rushing was Phil Swartzell with 42 yards. Starting halfback Charles Bussey picked up 29 yards for a 1.9 average and fumbled once.

The visitors' Jerry Holton stepped off 50 yards on 14 carries, which comes to 3.6 a try, but the other Lynx had their problems. Holton was the only Lynx back who carried more than twice who averaged over 2.3 yards a trip.

Spearman's quarterback Charles Shieldknight is a passer only in the loosest sense of the word. He managed all of nine yards on his throwing and completed only one of six attempts for a woeful 16.7% accuracy.

Canyon's Sherman Smith was good only in comparison to Shieldknight, as he hit on just six of 19 passes for 31.6%. He did have a couple that were dropped by his receivers, however. Phil Swartzell had a certain touchdown pass laid right in his hands by Smith at the Spearman five with two minutes left in the game but couldn't hang onto it.

Canyon dominated the statistics throughout the night as they moved the ball almost at will until they approached the Lynx goal. The Eagles led in first downs 20-5, rushing yardage 232-93, passing yardage 63-9, total offense 295-102, and penetrations of the opponent's 20 yard line 6-1.

Greeks . . .

stead of the usual 14-21 days.

Sororities felt that the lack of time would limit the size and quality of their entries and by combining efforts on one float they could also divide up the $200 maximum price limit and save each sorority funds.

After a meeting with Dr. Walker last Thursday, Panhellenic voted to keep four entries in the parade. The Interfraternity Council also voted to keep their original five entries in the parade.

"If the Greeks had pulled nine floats out of the usual 12 float homecoming parade, we might as well not have a parade," stated Dr. Walker explaining that homecoming must be set, keeping in mind that it must be a home game and can't be set later than October because of the weather.

Next year's homecoming and rush dates will be set immediately after this year's homecoming, in a joint meeting of the homecoming committee, Panhellenic and Interfraternity councils to avoid the time conflict.

Barns are currently needed by the group of float builders to store and build their floats in according to Dr. Walker. Persons having available barns should contact Roland Black, Canyon Chamber of Commerce director.

Spearman is now 0-3. The earlier losses were to Gruver and Sunray, a couple of very ordinary Class A teams.

Perhaps the Eagles had their minds on another game, one coming up this week on the road against tough, unbeaten Vernon.

The Eagles may have their hands full with Vernon, as they have taken down Tulia, Quanah, and Altus, Okla. The game is in Vernon at 7:30 this Friday, and the Eagles would like nothing better than to pull off an upset.

First Milo At Consumer's

The first load of milo for Consumer's Elevator of Canyon was delivered Friday.

Clinton Glenn, who farms five miles north of Canyon, brought in 14,440 pounds of milo.

Moisture content was 14.4, said Bob Brockman, assistant manager of Consumer's. He said up to Wednesday, about 500,000 pounds had been delivered.

Although harvest is slow at this time, he said combines would be going full swing after the first freeze.

The first load last year, he said, was delivered Sept. 8.

Auditions For Talent Show Slated

Auditions for Campus Talent '67 will be held at West Texas State University today. This information came this week from D.D. Dillard, district manager here for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, sponsor of the show. "This will be the third in our Campus Talent series to be produced in Texas," Dillard said.

"Our earlier shows were very well accepted and drew many favorable comments from the viewing audience."

Using a variety show format, the Campus Talent show provides an opportunity for outstanding college performers to be seen by television audiences across the state. Each sequence in the one hour production is filmed on location at the college by the mobile production unit, giving wide exposure to the school as well as the performer.

Students selected from auditions being held at 38 Texas colleges and universities will be filmed on campus later this year for probable inclusion in the show. A state-wide telecast is tentatively scheduled for next January.

Choirs Slate Fund Event

Saturday, Oct. 8, the "Canyon Choralliers" and the "Chandeliers", members of Canyon High School music groups will have a "pop bottle raid" to raise funds for choir projects.

Money collected will be used for new uniforms for the mixed choir and girls choir and a spring trip.

Choir members will canvass the town collecting the bottles and will be wearing name tags to identify them.

Canyon residents wishing to aid the choir in their fund raising project and who have pop bottles they want collected, may call OL5-4514 after 5p.m. prior to collection date, Oct. 8, according to Miss Linda Adams, director.

Star Rank was presented to Leslie Rogers, Jeff Pair and Duane Harp by Travis McBride and Bill Walker presented Life Rank to Jamey Gressett.

Thirty-six merit badges were awarded to members of the troop.

Refreshments were served following the program.

Included on the special program will be "Trumpet Tune", "God, My Shepherd", "Psalm 46", Four Biblical songs, "A Mighty Fortress", "Here, At Thine Altar, Lord", and "The Lord's Prayer."

MRS. JOHN BYRON BYRD

Miss Farner Weds Byrd In Nebraska Nuptials

Miss Mary Lou Farner and John Byron Byrd were married recently in a candlelight service at the First Methodist Church in Valentine, Neb.

Rev. Roy Neal Byrd, Jr., father of the bridegroom, read the vows.

Parents of the couple are Dr. and Mrs. John E. Farner of Valentine and Rev. and Mrs. Roy N. Byrd, Jr. of Borger. The bridegroom's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Byrd, Sr. of Canyon and his maternal grandmother is Mrs. Alice Black, also of Canyon.

Mrs. Willard Lynch played the organ and Rev. James Mercer sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "Make of Our Hands, One Hand" during the ceremony, and "Because" following the ceremony.

The altar was arched by two fan shaped bouquets of white chrysanthemums and grape ivy, topped with white candles, each placed on its own white pedestal. On either side of the pedestals were four brass candelabra with smilax and ivy trailing through. The pews were decorated with smilax fern linking white satin fans and bows.

Candles were lit by Dick Schmidt of Lincoln and Dale Heth of Valentine.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory organza and alencon lace. Lines of the fitted bodice featured a madonna neckline, short sleeves and the sheath skirt flowed into a formal chapel train. Alencon lace fashioned the front of the skirt with the scalloped edge at the hemline. Appliques of lace decorated the bodice, sleeves and the chapel train. The front of the skirt and bodice were hand embroidered with tiny pearls and crystals.

With her gown, the bride wore a matching mantilla of ivory net with alencon lace borders and center appliques. Her bouquet was a tulip and satin fan surrounded by eucharis lilies with an elongated pendant of grape ivy and lilies.

Miss Susan Tetherow of Valentine served as maid of honor and Mrs. Alan Kusek was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Dorothy Howard a cousin of the bride, Miss Rebecca Byrd, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Jan Pittenger and Mrs. Mike DeVaney.

The bridal attendants wore identical Nile green, silk crepe evening gowns fashioned with madonna necklines and empire waists accented with matching alencon lace and tear drop beads. A train of matching silk crepe added detail to the back of the gown. The headpieces were fashioned of Nile green net accented with eucharis lilies and variegated ivy. They each carried bouquets similar to the bridal bouquet.

Mary Jo Drybread of Medora, N.D., was the flower girl. She wore a white dress with a white headband and carried a white basket of rose petals and green net and satin ribbon.

Jeff Byrd, a brother of the bridegroom, served as ring-bearer.

Best man was Roy N. Byrd, III, a brother of the bridegroom from Canyon. Groomsmen were George Byrd of Borger, a brother of the bridegroom, Ed McElfresh, Mike DeVaney and Bob Bucanon.

Serving as ushers were Dick Schmidt, Dale Heth, Rick Davenport and Ted Ormisher.

A reception in Fellowship Hall featured a table which was decorated by Mrs. Merle Watts and Mrs. Harold Jordan. The table had candelabra entwined with ivy flanking the wedding cake which was decorated in green and white and accented with lilies and ivy. The cake was created and served by Mrs. Otto Buechle of Valentine.

Assisting with the reception were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Kenneth Harman of Omaha, Mrs. R.E. Howard of Omaha, Mrs. Jackson Good of Ainsworth, Mrs. Arnold Vagts of Denver, Mrs. Leo Harman of Denver, and Mrs. Homer McNabb of Los Angeles. Others in the houseparty were Mrs. J.B. Fischer of Valentine, Kathleen McNabb of Los Angeles, Mrs. Merle Watts, Mrs. Harold Jordan, Linda Randall, Cheryl Roos, Pam Keech and Bobbie Harman.

Pat Rasmussen of Yankton was at the guest book. A buffet for the wedding party and out of town guests was held at the home of the bride following the reception.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Byrd attended school at the University of Nebraska. She graduated with a BS degree in dental hygiene this spring and he is in his second year at the college of medicine. The couple will make their home in Omaha, Neb.

Teenagers Study Bible Informally

BY LORENA MILLER

Teenagers and the Bible are becoming better acquainted through a new study series being held in Canyon each Wednesday evening.

The project was started last winter and has gradually grown and taken shape until it is being repeated this year according to John Stott, founder and director of Hidden Falls Ranch, who is instructor and leader for the course.

Trudy and Terry Martin, children of the Terry Martins of Canyon, were the originators of the study group idea and have invited their friends and classmates to attend the series each week.

"They gave us something to be interested in at camp," relates Trudy, who is a sophomore at Canyon High School. Trudy is also interested in speech and basketball.

"We are all church-going teenagers....but the fact is that we had never realized exactly what Christianity was until we met together at camp," said Trudy. "And then too, church was so formal."

"Teenagers like to be informal and have discussions on their level," said Stott. "These youths approached me about teaching the study series and I readily accepted. I formerly had experience with this sort of thing while we were in Dallas."

"We have kids from all walks of life who like to think and with this sort of joint meeting, from all religious faiths, we see that we are not 'odd balls' because we like to learn about the Bible and its teachings," commented Trudy.

"The idea is to make the Bible lessons broad and simple enough that the teenager understands what is really happening," said Stott. "We take the basics of the Bible and apply them to our everyday living in school and home and also in our future lives."

The group, which started with 9 students last winter, ended the study session last spring with about 25 attending regularly including several college students. When the group resumed studies this fall, they had 7 beginners and have grown to double that size in only 2-3 weeks.

"If we get too big, we'll probably break down into age groups," said Stott.

Terry, a ninth grade student at Canyon Junior High School, also likes the informality of the meetings as does younger brother, Mike, 10, who invites his friends over to participate in the round table discussions.

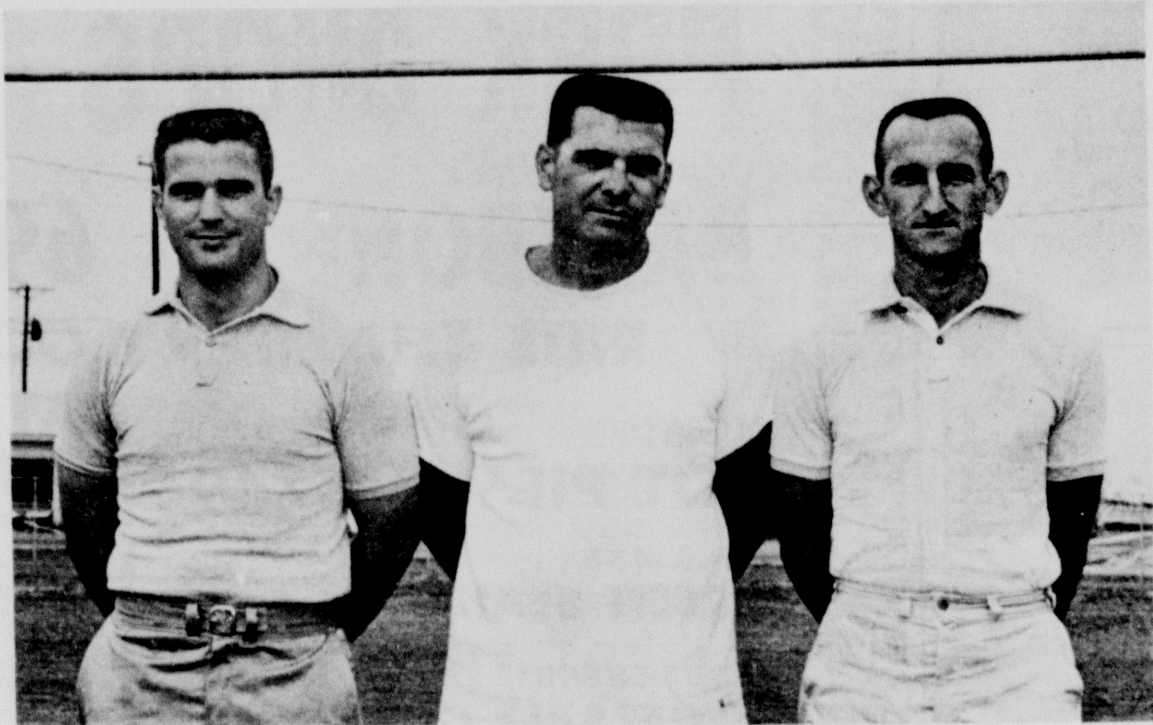

The group follows no church creed but deals simply with the idea that Christianity is for all and youth is a good training time to become acquainted with the Bible.

"I don't preach," stated Stott.

EXAMINING the Bible are Terry and Trudy Martin as John Stott of Hidden Falls Ranch looks on. The two youths were instrumental in beginning a teenage study series on Christianity which meets each week at the Martin home with Stott as instructor.

Daugherty Explores On Summer Expedition To Brazil

By MARY ANN WALTER

Each year the American Geological Institute receives a grant from the National Science Foundation to send 20 geology professors abroad to study classical geological areas.

The tours have been to the British Isles, Italy, the Alps, France and Scandinavia.

This year the tour headed for Brazil and invited to participate as a member of the group was Dr. Frank Daugherty of West Texas State University.

Dr. Daugherty, originally from Alpine, received his bachelor's degree from Sul Ross State College in that city and a master's degree and his doctorate from the University of Texas.

He has worked in industry for several years and came to West Texas as professor of geology in 1963.

"Purpose of the trip was to acquaint geology professors with classical geological areas...actually a two-fold purpose.... We saw unique geology, but one of the purposes was to encourage interchange of faculty and students between the United States and Brazil, to participate in joint research projects."

"This is of benefit to ourselves and to the geology professors of Brazil," Dr. Daugherty said. "The 20 professors who made the trip were selected on the basis of how our research interests coincided with research interests of the professors in Brazil."

"There was interest in two phases of geology, economic and petro-genesis." The economic was basically concerned with ore deposits and petrogenesis of sodium rich igneous rocks. Brazil, according to Dr. Daugherty, contains many unusual areas of igneous rocks. "There is a close correlation between these deposits and deposits of fluorine minerals, beryllium and mercury."

Formations of igneous rock which in molten state pushed toward the earth's surface, but cooled before reaching it, are found in Nigeria, Mexico, Brazil and in parts of New Hampshire and Vermont. Due to erosion, they are now exposed.

According to Dr. Daugherty, Brazil has numerous mining activities basically in iron ore, aluminum ore, gold and diamonds.

Visits were made to many of these operations including a trip to the Morro Velho gold mine, at one time the deepest mine in the world. The mining activity is carried on 9,000 feet underground and is still in operation.

"We saw journals of this mine dated from 1825 to 1850. They were kept by the mine operator and concerned a time when they still used slaves. The company, the St. Del Rey, was an English company and the journals are in English. I wish someone would do a thesis on the mine."

Noting some difficulty with the language, Dr. Daugherty said, "I had forgotten what little Portuguese I knew. By the middle of the trip I could understand what they were saying. There were only two of us that were able to get along in Portuguese."

Dr. Daugherty, who is fluent in Spanish, said, "I practice language by listening to short wave radio. I can hobble along in Portuguese and Italian and I once passed a fluency test in Russian, but it has been some time."

He also laughingly pointed out that the Russian did come in handy on the trip at one time. "I wanted to buy a bracelet for my wife and the shop in Sao Paulo was owned by a white Russian couple. It was obvious I was an American and they very carefully discussed me and my pedigree and the price they were going to ask me to pay. I could remember enough to understand and I still didn't buy the bracelet....too high."

The geologist has lived and worked in Mexico for several years. He expressed the opinion that "If you can handle one of the Romance languages you won't have too much trouble with another." He added that most of the Brazilian faculty had some English and in practically all Brazilian Universities, there have been visiting lecturers from the U.S.

Geological Survey working to improve the geology schools. So they have been exposed to the practical use of the English language. He also pointed out that there are almost no undergraduate textbooks printed in Portuguese so the students have to be able to read English, German and French. Approximately 80% of the texts are in English. "There were a number of students who could speak no English, but who read and write very well."

Dr. Daugherty expressed the belief that as a result of the joint effort, he might possibly sometime in the future, teach in Brazil while his counterpart would be teaching here. He also expressed the feeling that one or two students from Brazil would be attracted to WTSU. "Or it is possible I will be working on a joint research project with one of the members of the faculty at one of the universities."

"The Brazilian government is very interested in our work. Brazil is larger than the United States and there is a notable lack of people with training to explore this field."

He also added "You have never seen hospitality until you have seen Brazilian hospitality."

As a postscript to this six-week field trip in Brazil, Dr.

Daugherty is expecting a 600-700 lbs. of rock samples to reach the U.S. in time to be used as Christmas gifts.

If these rocks are like one sample in his office at the Killgore Research Center, they will contain diamonds in the rough for some lucky recipient.

Visiting over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Henderson, 1507 7th Ave. was their brother-in-law, William E. Brown of Granfield, Okla.

Mrs. Bob Gruhlkey, Marcy and Ricky of Adrian visited with Mr. and Mrs. Clee Pond recently.

Friday Deadline For Candidates

Deadline for filing for fresh-man or graduate senator and class offices at West Texas State University is Friday.

Elections are scheduled Tuesday in the Gameroom of the Student Union Building.

John Mann, election chair-man, said all candidates must pay a $1 filing fee and deposit $5 until eligibility can be de-termined and to insure that all posters are removed fol-lowing the election.

Candidates for freshman senator must fill in a form available in the office of the program director in the SUB and graduate candidates and class officers must have a form signed by the University Registrar certifying eligibility.

Graduates must have passed six semester hours with a 2. grade average and class offi-cer candidates must be re-gistered for at least 12 hours and have passed 12 hours.

Mann said it had not been determined how many senators would need to be elected but the Student Association con-stitution makes provisions for a minimum of one freshman and at least three graduate senators. The class may have an additional senator for every 250 class members over 750, he said.

All candidates will gather for a Political Rally Monday at 6:30 p.m. in the SUB to make short speeches.

Voting machines will be set up in the SUB and voting boxes placed in each dormitory, Mann stated.

Dispatcher Is 'Voice' Of Law Enforcement

BY WAYNE BOARD

Crosby Hammons might be described as the "voice" of law enforcement in Canyon and Randall County.

Hammons, who is deputy-dispatcher in the Randall County Courthouse Annex, sits in a small cubicle for eight hours each day answering telephone messages and dispatching information to many police officers, deputies, Texas Rangers and Department of Public Safety Officers.

Coming to the position April 1, 1958, Hammons' one responsibility is operation and control of the office teletype machine.

Some 21 Sheriff's Offices in the Panhandle are directly on the circuit, the US Weather Bureau, and Department of Public Safety in Austin.

Going through the Amarillo office, Hammons can contact the Austin DPS and they, in turn, can reach 42 states through the teletype operation.

By the use of a special code, Hammons can contact any one of the 21 on the unit, a select few or the entire number.

In a large filing cabinet are contained the Sheriff's Office messages, stolen vehicle reports, probationer reports and all offense violations.

Also in the "keeping" of Hammons are automobile registration books for Potter and Randall Counties. Making a quick check, Hammons can determine license number, year, make, owner and his complete address. The books are criss crossed and identification can either be made by owner's name or license number of the vehicle.

As a special aid to officers working at night, an automobile file is also maintained on students at West Texas State University.

The file is helpful to night officers, Hammons explained, because WTSU Security Officers are not in their office at night and the records are for easy reference.

Also used for easy reference at night are cards bearing the names, addresses and offense of anyone who has been in jail here. Permanent records are locked in another part of the Annex at night.

Warrants filed in the County are also kept in "Crosby's cubicle". They are on file until served or until the statute of limitations runs out on the offender.

Fire and emergency units from the Canyon Fire Department also receive and send messages through the dispatcher's office.

When a fire, emergency or severe weather threatens, Hammons pushes buttons on the warning plectron unit and some 50 firemen are alerted.

He signals eight blasts for tornadoic conditions and six for all clear.

While he is signaling with the plectron, he talks to the firemen on their home or business based radio units. He keeps the fire and emergency units "in touch" during a disaster.

Other law enforcement agencies using the Randall County facility include the DPS, Texas Ranger, Game Warden, City Police, doctors, ambulances and wreckers.

In addition to maintaining a revolving wheel with the names, addresses and telephone numbers of businessmen should an emergency arise during after-hours, Hammons operates a telephone with one Amarillo, three Canyon and one direct line to the CFD.

"We work with them (law enforcement officers) and treat them all alike, giving them their calls and information we have available," he said.

Having a central dispatching office, which is unusual in most cities, saves the Police Department from having separate radio units, he said. The city pays a portion of the dispatcher's salary and so much for the use of the jail each month.

Many cities, Hammons said, have separate radio units and frequencies, but with the one central dispatching office and one frequency, officers can aid each other should an emergency arise.

"The Chief of Police and the Sheriff work real well together and for one interest—law enforcement," Hammons stated.

Hammons said the dispatcher is also a "go between" between the public and the units as the office does get some odd calls but, "we never pass can't ever tell."

A "station log" is maintained by the dispatcher and it records the time, unit number and location of all officers at any time they are on duty.

"When they call, they leave the nature of their business and if they can be reached one up even though it doesn't always concern us here—there's always a chance there will be something we can do to help."

He said the general public was good to help and called with all varieties of information and although someone might report a fight and it be only a few children screaming, "you
